Co-operative Housing International and the Global Co-op Housing Movement

NAHC Conference
St. Thomas Virgin Is.
October 2014
International Co-operative Alliance

The voice of and apex body for co-operatives worldwide
International Co-operative Alliance

- 200 members from 100 countries representing a billion co-op members
- Sector employs 100 million people
- 300 largest co-op organizations – the Global300 – have revenues of more than $1.6 trillion, comparable to the GDP of the world’s eighth largest economy
- Organized into 4 regions and 8 business sectors
- Currently focused on the Blueprint for a Co-operative Decade
International Co-operative Alliance

The business sectors

1. Agriculture
2. Banking
3. Consumer
4. Fisheries
5. Health
6. Housing
7. Insurance
8. Producer
Co-operative Housing International

• One of the 8 business sectors
• Made up of the CHI Committee and a 12-person board of directors elected by the Committee
• The Committee members are co-operative housing organizations that are either o direct members of the Alliance; or o members of an apex co-operative organization and are named by that body as an organization representing housing co-operatives in that country
Co-operative Housing International

• Currently there are 19 countries represented within CHI
• Activities include
  o advice and support to members
  o seminars and best practices-sharing o specific global projects: supporting sustainable forestry practices; good governance tools; and the Profiles of a Movement publications
Profiles of a Movement

Profiles of a Movement: CO-OPERATIVE HOUSING Around the World

Co-operative Housing International
A Sector of the International Co-operative Alliance
Profiles of a Movement

By the numbers

• The co-op model has proven to be a flexible and adaptable international shelter solution

• More than 20 million dwellings in housing co-ops worldwide

• Housing co-ops are found in over 60 countries in Africa, Asia-Pacific, the Americas and Europe
Profiles of a Movement

By the numbers

• 27 million Europeans live in housing co-ops, as well as
• 33% of the Egyptian population
• 29% of the Polish population
Profiles of a Movement

By the numbers

- Turkey: co-ops make up 25% of the total housing stock, 1,409,000 homes
- Sweden: 22% of the total housing stock, 998,000 homes
- Poland: 19% of the total housing stock, 2,583,000 homes
- Norway: 15% of the total housing stock, 261,000 homes
Profiles of a Movement

By the numbers

- Pakistan: 12% of the total housing stock, 2,274,000 homes
- Germany: 10% of the total housing stock, 2,180,000 homes
- Austria: 8% of the total housing stock, 368,000 homes
Austria
Austria – some country profile data

- Co-ops: 99; Units: 368,000
- Tenure: approx 30% rental, 70% ownership (resale prices controlled)
- Sector structure: single organization, the Austrian Federation of Limited-Profit Housing Associations – Auditing Federation (GBV). 193 members including non-profits, 795,000 homes
- Challenges: ending of dedicated housing funding – now included in general transfers to provinces
Germany
Germany – some country profile data

• Co-ops: 1,850; Units 2,180,000
• Tenure: 100% rental; non-resident investor members (4% return)
• Sector structure: national member organization, The Federal German Housing and Real Estate Organisation (GdW) for all co-ops plus public and non-profit housing organizations
• 14 regional federations share the work of advocacy, training and legal/technical advice
• Challenges: generally positive indicators but difficult housing market in the former GDR
Poland
Poland – some country profile data

- Co-ops: 3,500; Units: 2,583,000
- Tenure: approx 25% rental; 75% ownership (2002 data)
- Sector structure: a national member organization, the Auditing Union of Housing Co-operatives of Poland (ZRSMRP); 690 co-ops in membership with 1 million members
- 1 other smaller national auditing union and several regional bodies
- Challenges: poor quality stock; declining development; unsupportive government policy, legislative framework; arrears, poor management; low sector affiliation
Sweden
Sweden
Sweden – some country profile data

- Co-ops: 12,000+; Units 998,000
- Tenure: 100% tenant-ownership; co-ops retain asset ownership
- Sector structure: two national organizations, HSB Riksförbund (the larger) and Riksbyggen; both have regional bodies; sector organized on mother-daughter model; membership includes home-savers
- Challenges: No government assistance; members buy shares equal to 75% - 80% of development costs; no restrictions on shares resale in the market; housing shortages due to lack of suitable land in municipalities
Canada
Canada
Canada
Canada – some country profile data

• Co-ops: 2,300; Units 100,000
• Tenure: nearly 100% rental; some full market and limited-equity ownership
• Almost all rental co-ops developed under government programs, the majority under federal programs
• Sector structure: national member organization (CHF Canada); apex body in Quebec (CQCH)
• 15 regional federations, CHF Canada and CQCH share the work of advocacy, training, operational support and commercial service delivery
Canada – some country profile data

- Challenges:
  - End of operating agreements – federal co-ops
  - Fragmented jurisdictional landscape
  - Aging stock
  - Asset management
  - Small scale of housing co-ops (average size across Canada: 40 units, many are much smaller)
  - Small scale of many regional federations
Current CHI initiatives

Good Governance Project

• Three elements:

  • Good Governance Charter: a 10-part statement of good governance principles which we invite housing co-ops to adopt

  • Good governance Test: 33 questions in 4 categories that test the quality of co-operative governance

  • Good Governance Test Software: automates the taking of the good governance test; can be customized to address particular local priorities
Current CHI initiatives

Sustainable forestry initiative

• Builds on a 2011 ICA Housing resolution adopted by the Alliance General Assembly
• Calls on the worldwide co-operative movement, to commit to use only forest products from certifiably sustainable sources
• CHI is committed to keeping this resolution alive
• The initiative is featured in our Autumn 2014 e-bulletin which can be downloaded from the CHI website
Current CHI initiatives

Blueprint for a Co-operative Decade

• The Blueprint is the Alliance’s legacy project from the 2012 International Year of Co-operatives.

• Goal: to make co-operatives the fastest growing form of enterprise in the world by 2020. It can be found on ICA’s website. There are five elements to the Blueprint:
  • Participation
  • Sustainability (economic, environmental, social)
  • Identity
  • Legal frameworks
  • Capital
Current CHI initiatives

Blueprint for a Co-operative Decade

- CHI has created an interpretation of the Blueprint for housing co-ops. It can be downloaded from the CHI website.

- The goal is to create an interpretation of the Blueprint that
  - is true to the intent and spirit of the original ICA version
  - is as relevant as possible to the housing cooperative environment.